

Rev. Sarah Mayer-Flatt is a pastor in the Southeast Michigan Synod, ELCA and currently serves as the “Synod Storyteller” where she shares stories of her own, as well as stories that are part of our shared life in southeast Michigan under the Take A Seat column on our website: (<https://semisynod.com/publications/#stories>).

She is a full-time wheelchair user and loves to teach people all about disability justice through her own experiences.
