Chapter 4 CONFESSION OF FAITH

- †S4.01. This synod confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- †S4.02. This synod confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
- a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.

c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.

†S4.03. This synod accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.

†S4.04. This synod accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this synod.

†S4.05. This synod accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.

†S4.06. This synod accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord; namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the church.

†S4.07. This synod confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 5 NATURE OF THE CHURCH

†S5.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this synod are to be carried out under His rule and authority.

†S5.02. This church confesses the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church and is resolved to serve Christian Unity throughout the world.

†S5.03. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. This Church, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

†S5.04. This church, inspired and led by the Holy Spirit, participates in The Lutheran World Federation as a global communion of churches, engaging in faithful witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and in service for the sake of God’s mission in the world.

Chapter 15 FINANCIAL MATTERS

†S15.01. The fiscal year of the synod shall be February 1 through January 31.

†S15.11. Since the congregations, synods, and churchwide organization are interdependent expressions that share in God's mission, all share in the responsibility to develop, implement, and strengthen the financial support of the whole church. The gifts and offerings of the members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America are given to support all parts of this church; thus the unity of this church should be evidenced in determining each part's share of the gifts and offerings. Therefore:

- a. The mission of this church beyond the congregation is to be supported by such a proportionate share of each congregation's annual budget as each congregation determines. This synod shall develop guidelines for determining "proportionate share," and shall consult with congregational leaders to assist each congregation in making its determination.
- b. This synod shall receive the proportionate share of the mission support from its congregations, and shall transmit that percentage or amount in consultation with the churchwide organization and approved by the Synod Assembly as part of its budget consideration.
- c. Should the Synod Assembly not approve the proportionate share of mission support determined in consultation with the churchwide organization, a new consultation with the churchwide organization shall take place. The Synod Council is authorized to amend the budget adopted by the Synod Assembly to reflect the results of this consultation.

†S15.12. The annual budget of this synod shall reflect the entire range of its own activities and its commitment to supportive funding with other synods and the churchwide organization.

S15.13. On the basis of estimated income, the Synod Council shall authorize expenditures within the budget for the fiscal year. Expenditure authorizations shall be subject to revision, in light of changing conditions, by the Synod Council.

- S15.14. Except when such procedure would jeopardize current operations, a reserve amounting to no more than 16 percent of the sum of the amounts scheduled in the next year's budget for regular distribution to synod causes shall be carried forward annually for disbursement in the following year in the interest of making possible a more even flow of income to such causes. The exact number of dollars to be held in reserve shall be determined by the Synod Council.
- S15.21. No general appeal to congregations of this or any other synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for the raising of funds shall be conducted by congregations or organizations related to or affiliated with this synod without the consent of the Synod Assembly or the Synod Council.
- †S15.31. This synod shall arrange to have an annual audit of its financial records conducted by a certified public accountant firm selected by the Synod Audit Committee and approved selected by the Synod Council. The audited annual financial report shall be submitted by this synod to the churchwide Office of the Treasurer and to the congregations of this synod.
- †S15.32. This synod shall maintain adequate, continuous insurance coverage in accordance with standards recommended by the churchwide organization. Insurance programs offered or endorsed by the churchwide organization shall be deemed to fulfill this obligation.

Chapter 16 INDEMNIFICATION

- †S16.01. Subject to the limitations and duties imposed by law, each person who is or was made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the present or former capacity of that person as a synod Council member, officer, employee, or committee member of this synod shall be indemnified against all costs and expenses incurred by that person in connection with the proceeding. Indemnification of any person by reason of that person's capacity as a director, officer, employee, or committee member of any other organization, regardless of its form or relationship to this synod, is subject to the provisions of †S16.02.
- a. The term “proceeding” means a threatened, pending, or completed lawsuit, whether civil or criminal, an administrative or investigative matter, arbitration, mediation, alternative dispute resolution, or any other similar legal or governmental action. The decision of the Synod Council shall be final.

†S17.04. Disbursements from the funds of mission shall be at the direction of the Synod Council in consultation with Synod Bishop and outreach committee.

The Fund for Mission shall not be available for loans or inter fund transfers for any purpose.

SC11.08A Bishop's Election Process

This process shall be used whenever there is to be a bishop's election and the current bishop is not seeking reelection.

Each congregation shall be notified as soon as possible to identify their voting members for the upcoming Synod Assembly no later than 15 weeks prior to the date of the Synod Assembly, so that they might participate in the pre-assembly Bishop's Election Process. This may require that congregations hold special congregational meetings to elect their voting members.

The Synod Council shall appoint a Bishop's Election Task Force (hereafter "Task Force") to carry out this process.

Conference Meetings – Each conference will meet simultaneously on a Saturday or Sunday 10 to 12 weeks prior to the date of the Synod Assembly. The date shall be chosen by the Task Force. Conferences may meet individually or in groupings of not more than three. The meeting will be open to all and voting members are strongly encouraged to participate. The meeting will be facilitated by the conference's dean. Those in attendance will receive information about the synod and the responsibilities of the bishop prepared by the Task Force. The attendees will then be asked to consider a set of questions developed by the Task Force designed to identify the conference's vision, mission for the Synod, and the issues they deem important. It is expected that discussion would last for two to three hours. The discussion may include discussion of individuals who might be potential nominees. At the end of the discussion, each attendee will receive a slip of paper and be asked to write down the name of an individual whom they would like to see serve as bishop of this synod. The number of slips given to members of the same congregation shall not exceed the number of voting members to which that congregation is entitled. The slips will be collected and sealed in an envelope which will be forwarded to the Task Force.

The Task Force will receive the names submitted by conferences as well as a report by each conference on their discussions and answers to the various questions. The Task Force will prepare a summary of all of the responses and tabulate the names proposed. The Task Force will contact the top ten names, plus ties, if any, and inquire whether the individual is open to participate in the pre-assembly Bishop's Election Process. In the event a potential nominee declines to participate, the Task Force shall contact the next name so that ten potential nominees who are willing to participate are identified. The consent of the top ten potential nominees will be obtained and background checks will be completed.

The Task Force will prepare a set of questions based on the information provided by the conference meetings. These questions will be presented to each of the potential nominees. The potential nominees will have the ability to answer, with the answer to each question being limited to 250 words. The potential nominees will also be asked to complete a biographical information form. The answers will be due back to the Task Force within two weeks. All answers and biographical information will be reproduced without editing and will be posted on the synod's website as a part of the pre-assembly report.

A second set of conference meetings will be scheduled for two to four weeks of prior to the Synod Assembly. There will be four meetings of no more than three conferences each. At these meetings the potential nominees will have the ability to address the attendees, answer questions from the attendees, so that the voting members will have the opportunity to get to know the potential nominees and the potential nominees will be better able to discern the potential of a call to serve as bishop. The Task Force will determine the exact format of these meetings.

At the Synod Assembly, the election process will commence with the ecclesiastical ballot as provided for in the Synod's governing documents. The Synod Assembly election process would include the traditional addresses by the top seven candidates as determined by the balloting process, with question and answer session by the top three candidates and three break-out sessions with the top three candidates as determined by the balloting process.

At the conclusion of tabulating the first or nominating ballot, the Elections Committee shall endeavor to contact by phone anyone listed on the Report of the Elections Committee who is not present at the Assembly, to ascertain whether they wish to remove their name from succeeding ballots.
